In Praise of Nu-Way

One of America's ten best hot dog joints."
- Gourmet Magazine, October, 2001

"Southerners have long understood that coleslaw makes a cooling counterpoint to spicy barbecue, and many of them have applied this same approach to hot dogs. The acknowledged king of this particular hill is Nu-Way Weiners in Macon, Ga."
- The New York Times, July, 2002

"The Nu-Way Weenie joint in Macon: one of the world's outstanding restaurants."
- Lewis Grizzard in The Atlanta Constitution, February, 1986

The Nu-Way Story

Who knew back in 1916, when James Mallis opened the first Nu-Way Weiner stand on Cotton Avenue in Macon, Georgia that he had created a chili dog that would become an eating obsession?

The original location with its landmark neon sign is still in operation today, continuing to serve that same secret recipe chili sauce and private label weiners.

We invite you to try our famous hot dogs, hamburgers, Mega-Burger, breakfast & other sandwiches at our nine locations in Central Georgia, and experience the traditional taste of Nu-Way.

The rest will be history.

We thank you for your patronage and we look forward to serving you again soon.
